The Apportionment Clause of Article I, Section 2, of the U.S. Constitution requires that all districts be as nearly equal in population as practicable.

Population by District
- 736,036 - 737,898 (More Than 3% Above Ideal Population) (2)
- 726,476 - 733,957 (1% - 3% Above Ideal Population) (3)
- 673,514 - 690,726 (More Than 3% Below Ideal Population) (3)
- 673,514 - 690,726 (Within +/- 1% of Ideal Population) (0)

Ideal 2020 Population - 713,312

Statewide 2020 Population - 5,706,494

The Department of Justice of Article I, Section 2, of the U.S. Constitution requires that all districts be as nearly equal in population as practicable.