Changes in Primary Home Language, 2006-2012
Comparing data on Minnesota students in 2006 and 2012

2006 Non-English Home Language
10.93% statewide
90,494 students

2012 Non-English Home Language
13.23% statewide
109,876 students

Non-English Home Language Change, 2006-2012

Spanish Home Language Change
2012: 40,673 students (4.89% of students statewide)
2006: 32,239 students (3.89% of students statewide)
Change: +8,434 students (25.8% increase)

Hmong Home Language Change
2012: 20,155 students (2.43% of students statewide)
2006: 22,624 students (2.73% of students statewide)
Change: -2,469 students (11.16% decrease)

Somali Home Language Change
2012: 14,876 students (1.8% of students statewide)
2006: 9,583 students (1.16% of students statewide)
Change: +5,293 students (54.8% increase)

Results calculated by subtracting the 2006 Non-English percentage from the 2012 Non-English percentage and dividing the difference by the 2006 Non-English percentage as below:

2012 Non-English total - 2006 Non-English total
2012 total students - 2006 total students

April 2013